You must be provided with a written explanation when a decision is made on your case. A fair hearing is a process that allows a Commodity Senior Food Program applicant or participant to appeal an adverse action, which may include the denial or discontinuance of program benefits, disqualification from the program or a claim to repay the value of commodities received as a result of fraud.

You have the right to:

- Examine documents supporting the State or local agency's decision before and during the hearing;
- Be assisted or represented by an attorney or other persons;
- Bring witnesses;
- Present arguments;
- Question or refute testimony or evidence, including an opportunity to confront and cross-examine others at the hearing; and
- Submit evidence to help establish facts and circumstances.

What happens after you ask for a fair hearing?

- The Department of Economic Security (DES) will send you a notice, at least fifteen (15) days in advance, with the time, date and location of the meeting along with the name of the hearing official.
- You may withdraw your fair hearing request or convert it to an informal dispute resolution meeting request at any time by contacting your Distribution Site or the DES Coordinated Hunger Relief Program at: (602) 771-2788.

How do you ask for a fair hearing?

- You can get an Informal Dispute Resolution Meeting/Fair Hearing Request form from your Distribution Site or by calling the DES Coordinated Hunger Relief Program at: (602) 771-2788.
- Drop off your completed form at your Distribution Site, fax it to DES at (602) 542-6575 or mail it to: Division of Aging and Adult Services, Office of the Assistant Director, 1789 W. Jefferson St., 2nd Floor, Mail Drop 6271, Phoenix, AZ 85007.

How can you keep getting benefits while you wait for a fair hearing?

- You may continue to receive benefits if you ask for a fair hearing within fifteen (15) days of the date on the decision notice.
- You may not continue to receive benefits while waiting for a fair hearing if your application was denied, a change in the law caused the decision to be made or your benefits were stopped because your certification period expired.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:

1. mail:

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
