

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program • Under Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI & VII), and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and Title II of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA) of 2008; the Department prohibits discrimination in admissions, programs, services, activities, or employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetics and retaliation. The Department must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service or activity. For example, this means if necessary, the Department must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that the Department will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible. SNAP

Stretch your food budget and buy more healthy, nutritious food for your family with the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

Apply for SNAP

The Department of Economic Security has over 60 community partners throughout Arizona who are ready and waiting to help you apply for SNAP. You can also apply for SNAP online or at a local DES eligibility office. Receiving SNAP is as easy as submitting an application, answering interview questions, providing missing documents, and, if eligible, getting your Electronic Benefits Transfer card.

You will never be charged a fee to apply for or participate in SNAP*

*Participants may be required to pay a $5 fee when requesting excessive replacement EBT cards. Clients do not pay the fee in cash; it's deducted from the next month's allotment.

Proper nutrition helps children to learn and grow and adults to live a healthier, more active life.

To find your local SNAP Community Partner food distribution site, contact the Department of Economic Security's Coordinated Hunger Relief Program at 602-771-2788 or visit <http://azcaa.org/>

To apply for SNAP directly with DES, visit www.healtharizonaplus.gov or call 1-855-432-7587 and ask for the location of the DES Family Assistance Administration eligibility office closest to you.

SNAP Community Partners across Arizona help thousands of people with their SNAP applications every month. Whether you live in an active and densely populated metropolitan area or prefer the lifestyle of more rural country, Community Partners rely on their skills, knowledge, and connection to DES to make the SNAP application process as easy as possible for you and your family.

To learn more about SNAP or to start the application process, contact your local SNAP Community Partner or DES Family Assistance Administration eligibility office.
